ROLL-CALL VOTE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The stand or announcement vote changes of members of Congress were inserted into the Congressional Record too late for CQ to include on the Weekly Report vote charts. These changes do not affect the final breakdown on the CQ vote charts. The "recorded vote" is the original vote. The "announced vote" is the vote change. Weekly Report page numbers of these votes are indicated so you may bring your Weekly Report charts into conformity with the Record.

Symbols used for votes:

Y - Yea
N - Nay
? - Absent
C - Voted "Present" to avoid possible conflict of interest
+ - Announced For − - Announced Against

CQ's Washington Alert has the best Hill news & analysis available online anywhere. And now you don't have to take just our word for it.

"Indispensable for anyone who follows issues on Capitol Hill. Through the last half century, CQ has covered every major development in the Congress with insight and accuracy."

— Senator Tom Daschle (South Dakota)
Senate Minority Leader

Did you know that the very same award-winning Congressional Quarterly reporters who write CQ print publications also provide Washington Alert's online information?

That's the number one reason why Senator Daschle—and so many other serious Congress-watchers—rely on CQ's Washington Alert.

In fact, CQ has the largest press corps covering Capitol Hill—over 132 reporters, editors and researchers to date. More than any major newspaper or television network. But of course, numbers don't tell the whole story.

Day in and day out, what really counts is the quality—and the timeliness—of the information you receive. CQ's award-winning reporters give you insights and analysis based on years of experience and training. In addition to bringing you continuous updates throughout the day on all the action, from Capitol Hill to the White House and around the nation.

Simply put, Washington Alert's first-rate Hill news and analysis makes other online legislative tracking services seem amateurish by comparison.

So when you think of CQ's Washington Alert—think Congressional Quarterly. For 50 years, widely respected for its accurate, objective, thorough and timely coverage of Congress and national politics. Today, instantly accessible via your computer.
